Maximilian

Hotel Maximilian provides comfort, style and location with ease. Just settle in and be spoiled by our staff and the magic of Prague. The Maximilian is designed for luxury, a process that takes you, body and soul, gracefully to the traditional beauty of Europe and non-stop to the pleasures of Prague's contemporary cultural life.

Comfort

The beds are so comfortable, why leave the room? As you would expect, every facility is provided.

Let's start with breakfast

...from daylight to high noon great, fresh servings of almost everything is offered in an ultra-modern restaurant facing a garden terrace with plenty of daylight and air.

You will have discovered a drawing room, with a fireplace and an honesty bar, providing a warm and cozy atmosphere at all times.

Settle into our colourful library and read Czech authors, or test our reference materials: our selection of history, art and design.

A business centre provides immediate communication. WiFi area free of charge.

Spa is downstairs

...Zen City Spa gives traditional Asian massages and floating lets you feel new powers and a draw new energies.

Style

Art Deco, Modernism and contemporary design lend great pleasure.

Maximilian's interiors glide with references to "La Maison de Verre" by Pierre Chareau in Paris, as well as the original Maximilian designed by the brilliant Czech architectural historian and critic Karel Teige.

Chrome, glass, wood and lighting play an exceptional part.

In the reception

...you are greeted by a large wall of onyx – stone so much loved by late Art Deco and Modernism.

The rooms are in various combinations of similar materials in colours elated to the chosen architectural period.

Chairs, sofas tables and lightning follow the designs of Pierre Chareaou, Guiseppe Terrani, Eileen Grey, Luke Pearson and Tom Lloyd, as well as Eva Jiricna Architects in collaboration with AI Design.

The Maximilian is the essence of Prague.

Location

Just a few steps (who's counting) from Old Town Square, the Maximilian is situated on Haštalská (perhaps the oldest street in Prague), facing St. Agnes Monastery (perhaps the oldest).

In five minutes

...you are everywhere. The Chinese believe that "the way back is the longest way". The Maximilian is the shortest path.
